

- All KS1 children learn to be historians by:
- Investigating and interpreting the past
 - Building an overview of world history
 - Understanding chronology
 - Communicating historically

Learning Journey – EYFS and KS1

Year 2 Enrichments:
 Arundel Castle (Monarch)
 Farnham Museum (FN)
 Florence Nightingale box

What would the world be like today if Florence Nightingale had not lived?

Children will sequence and discuss the events in Florence Nightingale's life. They explore the history through time in Florence's era. They use artefacts to find out about her past and learn about medical items from the past and compare them to today's instruments/items.

What is a monarch?

Finding out the role of a monarch, children compare the monarchy today with the monarchy in the past. Pupils investigate how William the Conqueror became King and learn how he used castles to rule. They study different types of castles and consider how these evolved over time.

Why did people and animals choose a life in Farnham?

2

Children will discuss what Farnham was like in the past and compare photos to how Farnham is like today. They will use a timeline to order the main events that happened in Farnham over the last 100 years.

How have toys changed?

Sequencing toys into a physical timeline, children investigate artefacts from the past and begin to pose questions. They learn how teddy bears have changed and 'interview' an old teddy bear before considering what toys may be like in the future.

How have explorers changed the world?

Finding out about events and people beyond living memory, children particularly think about explorers and what makes them significant. They create a timeline and investigate which parts of the world they explored, before comparing explorers and discussing ways in which these significant people could be remembered.

Year 1 Enrichments:
 Broomfield Road Woods
 Milestone Museum (Toys and Games)

How am I making history?

1

Looking at personal chronology and finding out about the past within living memory. Beginning to look at a simple timeline extending back to before they were born and developing understanding of when important events happened within the last 100 years.

Peek into the past

Comparing and contrasting people from the past and now by looking at photographs, listening to their stories and learning about their achievements.

Opportunities for the children to reflect on memories and experiences from their own past and comment on images of familiar situations in the past.
